Great British Bloodstock at home...

Lord Lloyd-Webber's Watership Down Stud were celebrating doubtless after an excellent meeting for them at the great festival of the month at York, as breeders and consignors. Their own Dar Re Mi (GB), by Darley sire Singspiel, a winner of a Gr.1 in Ireland earlier in the year, showed once again her battling qualities... READ FULL REPORT >>

BBM International Report

Racing in Russia is currently very much at a crossroads. Gavin Pritchard-Gordon and Jeremy Mactaggart, Director of DBS, were invited by the Russian Jockey Club to attend the Russian Derby at the Moscow Hippodrome on Saturday 15 August.

NEXT SALES

One of Deauville's big weekends on 15 and 16 August was dominated by winners from this side of the Channel in the major races.

The late Gerald Leigh had great success in France and his children bred Tattersalls graduate Armure (GB) to win the Gr.2 Prix de Pomone, to be followed by Juddmonte Farms' Crossharbour (GB), by Zamindar, landing the Gr.3 Prix Gontaut-Biron. The Sunday started well, with Sri Putra (GB) (pictured above), by Juddmonte's flying stallion Oasis Dream (GB), taking the Gr.2 Prix Guillaume D'Ornano with a late swoop... New Festival Flat Sale within Ascot Racecourse

Auctioneers Brightwells will break new ground by staging a Select Sale of Flat Horses In Training attached to the Ascot Festival Meeting on Friday 25 September. The Select Festival Sale, which will take place after racing at the racecourse, will be open to a limited number of two-year-olds and upwards with national and international appeal to continue their racing careers. The auction will be staged on the Grundy & Bustino Lawn creating a panoramic sales arena with facilities to show the horses in the pre-parade ring and saddling boxes... READ MORE>>

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN

The Ebor Meeting at York has always been one of the highlights of our Flat Racing season, and this year's renewal proved to be no exception.

Lord Lloyd-Webber's Da Re Mi (by Singpiel) and Lady Bamford's Sariska (by Pivotal) provided a resounding one, two for British breds in the Group 1 Yorkshire Oaks – while the ever youthful Borderlescott (by Compton Place) did likewise when taking the Group

Over £3 million prize money to be won with the Racing Post Yearling Bonus Scheme. The scheme is set up to reward racehorse owners worldwide, offering an extra £10,000 bonus prize to the winners of selected "Racing Post Yearling Bonus" maiden races. Only scheme registered yearlings purchased in Britain or Ireland can win bonuses. Contact Tim Jones for more information or visit www.racingpost.com/yearlingbonus

1 Nunthorpe Stakes for the second successive year.

BBM has enjoyed a brisk and productive August, which included visits to France, Spain, Sweden, and Russia. We have also played hosts to a delegation of Senior Officers serving in the Royal Cavalry of Oman, who spent five days in London and Newmarket, fact finding about our Racing and Breeding Industry.

BBM and DBS gave a joint Drinks Reception on the eve of the DBS St.Leger Yearling Sale, and gave David Redvers and John Osborne a prime opportunity to promote the new Racing Post Yearling Sales Bonus Scheme, which has been so positively received.

We have also welcomed Brightwells to membership of our BBM Committee, and very much look forward to working closely with Matt Mitchell, Head of Bloodstock, who brings a great deal of expertise and experience to the table.

And finally, I would exhort everyone to invest in a copy of Jack Berry's uproarious new book ' Better late than Never', proceeds of which will go to the Injured Jockeys Fund, a Charity which is very close to Jack's heart. Please make cheques payable to The Injured Jockeys Fund, and send to Jack at Well Close House, Hunton, Nr Bedale, North Yorkshire DL8 1QW.

All the best,
Gavin Pritchard-Gordon
