The Godolphin Stud and Stable Staff Awards 2010 Guidance Information

David Nicholson Newcomer Award

David Nicholson Newcomer Award:

For those who have displayed a desire to improve, have progressed their skills and knowledge and become an integral part of the team while employed in the industry for less than 5 years.

What are The Godolphin Stud and Stable Staff Awards?

The Stud and Stable Staff Awards were initiated in 2005 to recognise the achievements of racing's key staff. They are generously sponsored by Godolphin and are run by the British Horseracing Authority, in conjunction with the Racing Post. In further support of the Awards, Godolphin has also increased the prize fund in 2010 to £120,000.

Who can enter this category?

The competition is open to any candidate currently employed as Stud or Stable Staff within England, Wales or Scotland at the time of nomination. Anyone from within the industry can nominate, so owners, trainers, breeders and other industry staff can nominate those who they feel deserve an award. Nominations for the Newcomer Award are open to those who have been employed within the industry for less than 5 years.

Who will judge the award and on what criteria will the nominees be judged?

The judging panel will be made up of six influential racing figures, Chaired by Brough Scott. The Judges will be looking for candidates who have shown a desire to learn and improve, have progressed their industry skills and knowledge during their employment and have become an integral part of the team since joining.

What is the prize for this Award category?

The overall winner of the award will be awarded £5,000 and their yard will also receive £5,000. Two runners-up will also receive £2,000 each, as will their yards.

How should the forms be completed?

The forms can be printed and returned by post to Kelly Barnes, British Horseracing Authority, 75 High Holborn, London WC1V 6LS, by fax to 020 7152 0161 or by email to awards@britishhorseracing.com. Alternative versions are available if required and can be requested by telephone on 020 7152 0164, by texting 'AWARDS' to 07797 801694 or by email to the above address.

When must the forms be returned by?

All nominations must be completed and returned between the 4th January and 5th February 2010.
